President's Message

This season got off to a great start with a delightful luncheon at the Bird Key Yacht Club. The venue and the menu were both perfect, as the Chicken Wellington drew raves from our 65 guests. But the real treat was the program, which was outstanding: Lauryn Sasso interviewed two Asolo Rep performers, Carolyn Michel and Kelly Felthous. Lauryn elicited personal details and professional lore with her insightful questions. The first was to ask each of them how each arrived at Asolo Rep.

Carolyn came to Sarasota with her parents and was interested in becoming a water ski professional. Sometime after seeing her first play, priorities changed. She majored in drama at Boston University and, back in Sarasota, worked at most of the theater venues. She is now entering her 24th season at Asolo Rep.

Kelly, who has been touring for the past year, playing both witches in Wicked, arrived in Sarasota a week ago to begin rehearsals for the part of Nellie Forbush in the upcoming production of South Pacific. Tired of touring in a "corporate" production, she had asked her agent to find an opportunity to work in a more creative environment. It worked! She arrived in New York, fresh from the tour, and with her 2 suitcases in tow, auditioned for the part of Nellie an hour later.

Lauryn then asked how being a woman affects the development of a career in the theater. Carolyn's immediate response was that male roles were always more plentiful and varied than those for women, which is a significant impediment to accumulation of credits in a portfolio. Another major reality is that of family. Carolyn put off marriage until, as she said, she found the "ideal husband". However while nurturing her career she "forgot" to have children.

Kelly, whose mother owned a performing arts studio, was told at an early age that as a performer, all she would have to do was stand on a stage and “look pretty”. Since Kelly exudes more energy than a steroid-stoked beehive, she has transcended such a limited image. Kelly seems to be attracted to roles that she can play with brio and is very excited to be appearing as Nellie. She has even persuaded the director to hold a rehearsal at Siesta Beach (sand between the toes, waves in the background). One thing that she has learned: there is a tremendous surface difference between “twenty-somethings” in the 1940s and today’s young women. Facial expressions, hand gestures, voice intonation: all have to be modulated to reflect those of an earlier time. But the inner emotions, the doubt and elation of love remain constant from one era to another.

Carolyn Michel ended by thanking the Guild for its work - especially for providing those “tech dinners”. “We all love food,” she said.

In return, we all thank Carolyn, Kelly and Lauryn for so generously sharing their time and insights. We now know a little of the reality behind the glamour of life in the theater. Thanks also to June Aloia, Glo Reber, Lynn Kopman and Dick Anderson for their work and to Linda DiGabriele for arranging the panel.

Looking forward to seeing you at our next meeting,

Pat

The Guild’s November meeting will be held on NOVEMBER 5th,

Play Readers' Corner

Second Monday, October Through May...

by Dianne Brin

October's stage reading, Bell, Book and Candle, put us into the appropriate spirit for Halloween. Congratulations to leader/director Ray Cruet for his fine editing and direction of the talented cast.

Play Readers' meetings are held in the FSU Center for the Performing Arts. We gather in the Asolo Repertory Theatre Main Lobby from 9:30 AM to 10:00 AM for socializing and coffee. The meeting this month will be held in the Cook Theatre and will begin promptly at 10:00 AM, and conclude by noon. All Guild members and their guests are welcome!

MONDAY NOVEMBER 10, 2014

David Lionel is this month's leader for Ladies of the Corridor, an intense 1953 drama written by Dorothy Parker and famed Hollywood playwright Arnaud d'Usseau. It deals with older women living on their own in a New York residence hotel. The seven female and six male cast members of this abridged script are as follows:

LULU AMES – 63, attractive, well-off widow

BETSY AMES – 30, Lulu's earnest daughter-in-law (appears in Act I only)

CONSTANCE MERCER – 63, working interior decorator

GRACE NICHOLS – 75, wealthy widow, confined to a wheelchair due to arthritis

MRS. GORDON – 70, twice-widowed, small-scale kleptomaniac

MRS. LAUTERBACH – 65, stout widow

MARY LINSCOTT – 58, plump wife visiting from Akron (appears in Act II only)

TOM LINSCOTT – 63, prosperous businessman visiting from Akron (appears in Act II only)

PAUL OSGOOD – 55, painfully divorced bookshop owner

CHARLES NICHOLS – 50, courtly, probably gay, would-be English teacher

ROBERT AMES – 35, Lulu's successful New York lawyer son

HARRY – 53, handsome concierge

MR. HUMPHRIES – 60, dapper hotel manager (appears in Act I only)

AUDITIONS COMING UP

Two auditions are scheduled directly after Monday's stage reading, to be held in the rehearsal room.

1. Open audition for Miracle on 34th Street will be held immediately following the Play Readers meeting. The Play Readers will be presenting an encore performance in the Cook Theatre on Wednesday, December 10th at 12:30 p.m.

Rehearsals will be held in the 5th floor meeting room of director Bill Bordy's condo, at 100 Central Avenue, on Sunday, Dec. 7th and Tuesday, Dec. 9th from noon to 4 p.m. Tech and Dress will be the morning of the show, Dec. 10th at 10:30 a.m. Because the regular meeting of the Play Readers will be on Mon., Dec. 8th, there will not be a scheduled rehearsal for that morning, BUT possibly a read through afterwards. Please e-mail Bill Bordy at billbordy@verizon.net for details. Those who appeared in last year's production need not audition, BUT please let him know, by e-mail preferably, if you will be available for all rehearsals, and what character/s you would prefer to play.

2. Open audition for Mother, Sons and Others will be held on Mon, Nov. 10th at noon after the Play Readers meeting, in the rehearsal room. This is a Play Readers' outreach program, and current bookings for this play are at Braden River Library on January Saturday, January 17th at 10:15 AM and at Perico Bay Club on Wednesday, February 18 at 2 PM. There will only be one or two rehearsals.

The play centers around an overly protective, first generation, Italian mother struggling as her two very different grown sons find equally different girlfriends who capture their heart. Director Dianne Brin will be casting the following characters:

Mary Sullivan: a 54 year old, Catholic, Italian-American mother of two boys. She's overly attached to her sons and expects them to be attentive and available to her.

Tommy Sullivan: 56 years old, Mary's husband. A recently-retired NYC police detective. He is a stoic, pragmatic, streetwise fellow and intermediary between Mary and their sons.

Little Tommy: 35 years old, former-jock-turned-chef, was always a challenge as a child. Mary is overly protective of her first son, and dismisses any outside criticism of Little Tommy. However, she is extremely critical of him privately. Little Tommy always does what he wants to do.

Billy: 33 years old, and smaller in stature than his brother. Very intelligent, never in trouble. Loves his older brother but they have little in common. Lets Little Tommy be the center of attention. He is an up-and-coming Wall Street attorney.

Sara: Little Tommy's 28 year old, Italian-American, steady girlfriend. She is a waitress at Little Tommy's restaurant. A little edgy, she fancies herself hip, wants to become an actress.

Judy: Billy's 32 year old Jewish girlfriend age thirty-two. She is an attorney at a competing law firm.

We have a busy and exciting day November 10th for Play Readers. See you then!!!

Membership

June Aloia

Dues are due for the 2014-2015 season. We are instituting this change because Asolo Rep is giving us a hand and providing new and exciting prospects for the Guild, and they have asked us to follow their fiscal schedule. Please submit your dues by January 1, 2015. When we receive your check, you will be sent an information packet by the Theatre. I encourage everyone who is able, to consider becoming a Sustaining or Patron member. We all want to support the theatre as fully as we can.

As a reminder: anyone attending the Play Readers' meetings must become a member of the Guild after their initial visit. Play Readers need to keep their membership current in order to perform. So let's get those pesky dues in by January 1st!

As the new membership chair, I could use some help! if you are interested (or willing) to help with registration at meetings, Play Readers and events, please let me know. I would also like to get a group together to brain-storm some ideas for increasing our membership.

What would YOU like to see happening?

Rodgers & Hammerstein's SOUTH PACIFIC

Music by Richard Rodgers

Lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II

Book by Oscar Hammerstein II & Joshua Logan

Directed by Rob Ruggiero

Nov. 14–Dec. 28 | Previews Nov. 11, 12, & 13

From the haunting "Bali Hai" to the exquisite "Some Enchanted Evening," this Rodgers & Hammerstein classic contains some of the most glorious music ever written. The winner of 10 Tony Awards® and the Pulitzer Prize for Drama, South Pacific tells the romantic story of two couples on a remote island in the Pacific—a U.S. Navy nurse and an expatriate French plantation owner, and a Marine Corps lieutenant and a young local girl—and how their happiness is threatened by the realities of war and their own prejudices. Helmed by the director of last season's smash hit Show Boat, South Pacific balances intimate, personal stories with the sweeping grandeur of wartime drama. This exciting production features all-new orchestrations arranged especially for Asolo Rep.

DAVID MAMET'S THE WATER ENGINE

By David Mamet
Directed by Greg Leaming
Nov. 5–23 | Preview Nov. 4

Set against the background of the Century of Progress Chicago World's Fair in 1934, an industrious inventor creates an engine that runs on water. But soon he finds himself the victim of nightmarish persecution by mysterious figures from the oil industry. A dark drama by one of this century's most important and thrilling playwrights.
